Plus/Minus

Yay the University Senate Committee has agreed to table the resolution of implementing plus/minus grading system in the fall of '08 for a month now. A little disappointed about Senator participation at the rally. Guys we are examples for other students if we don't care to come out and voice our opinions, why should they? We are suppose to be the students' advocates!! There were more students than senators at the rally, c'mon guys lets get our acts together and start working for the students!!

Hey Guys...

We are almost a month into the semester. Why haven't there been more legislation written up for this semester? C'mon guys lets make this semester magical and do a lot for the students. Take time to help your committee heads out and come up with ideas. As for you committee heads, lets stick on our members and push them to work hard and get legislation out this semester!! Guys this organization cannot run properly without your efforts!!!

SGA WEEK!!

Lets get excited guys, SGA week is right around the corner!! starts Monday March 5th all the way to Friday March 9th!! This is your week to promote your organization that you love and serve!!
